The poster depicts just some of the historical Indigenous sacred sites (hundreds exist), federal or state recreational parks, and areas affected by toxic mining and future threats. Elected officials at the local, state, federal, and tribal levels. Write Letters to the Editors. Attend public hearings, meetings, and action events. Inform your family and friends of these toxic mining threats.

HONOR THE TREATIES!